

Vote MOTM with the DCFC text service

(DCFC website - September 2009)

Derby County's supporters can vote for their Man of the Match at every single home game this season in conjunction with the Rams' new Text Messaging Partner Collstream.

The Rams launched the "DCFC Man of the Match Text Vote Service" against Sheffield United at the weekend with Dean Moxey coming out on top.

Each game one lucky fan who votes correctly for the most popular player will receive DCFC Club prize.

It is extremely simple to register your vote, please do the following:-

Text MOM, followed by the number of your selected player, followed by your full name to 60070 * e.g. MOM 9 John Smith

- * YOU MUST VOTE BEFORE 80th MINUTE in order for your vote to be counted
- * You will then receive a text message back from Collstream thanking you for your vote
- * Should you vote incorrectly, Collstream will send you a message asking you to correct your vote
- * Messages will be charged at your standard network rate

The service is advertised in-and-around Pride Park Stadium on the crowd-facing Advertising Boards, Washroom adverts and via PA announcements throughout the afternoon.
